

Scope and Sequence for The Revolutionary View of History
by Dori Anne Abbott

Each part is approximately thirty weeks or one school year. Each unit will take three weeks to complete.

Part I (First Year)

1. Renaissance: Revolution in the world of the Arts
2. Reformation: Revolution in the world of Religion
3. Scientific Revolution: Revolution in the world of Science
4. Age of Exploration: Revolution in the world of Navigation
5. Mercantilism: Revolution in the world of Economics
6. Enlightenment: Revolution in the world of Philosophy
7. American War for Independence and French Revolution: Revolution in the world of Politics
8. European Industrial Revolution: Revolution in the world of Technology
9. War of 1812/Monroe Doctrine: Revolution in the world of global power
10. Rise of Imperialism: Revolution in the world of Sociology

Part II (Second Year)

11. Marxist Revolutions of 1848: Revolution in the world of Politics
12. American Westward Expansion: Revolution in the world of Identity and Purpose
13. American Industrial Revolution: Revolution in the world of Technology
14. Civil War and Reconstruction: Revolution in the world of Centralized Government
15. World War I: Revolution in the world of Warfare
16. Roaring 20s/Great Depression: Revolution in the world of Economics
17. World War II: Revolution in the world of women in society
18. Cold War: Revolution in the world of the Tactics of Fear
19. Space Race: Revolution in the world of Civil Engineering and Space Navigation
20. 1960s: Revolution in the world of Pop Culture
21. Modern America: Revolution in the world of Global Consciousness